About me

- I love board-games.
- Every weekend I enjoy hiking with my dog Thomas.
- And dedicate time to my passion for baking.

Pistachio Ville

Pistachio Ville is created with love thinking about the italian cuisine and their amazing recipes using this amazing product.

My biggest challenge

The biggest challenge I face while doing this project was to deal with the frustration at some points when something did not work as expected.

It's solved!!

It doesn't matter how many time you spend in trying to fix something, doing some yoga or stretching while I was feeling frustrated help to see things more clearly.
